WILSON WILL FIGHT TO LAST DITCH TO GAIN APPROVAL OF TREATY

By John Edwin Nevin.

Washington, July 15.—President Wilson will fight to the last ditch against reservations by the United States to the German peace treaty. This was again emphasized by administration leaders today.

Predictions that the president would agree to inconsequential changes through reservations to "save the faces" of certain senators, were said to be utterly without foundation by administration leaders. They insisted that president has thoroughly canvassed the general situation and that he is convinced the opposition cannot muster enough senate votes for any single reservation in order to incorporate it in the treaty.

Since his arrival in Washington the president has dealt personally with certain Democrat senators who were reported to be wavering in their report of the treaty. As a result of these conferences, Mr. Wilson was said by the men closest to him to be certain that there will not be more than one democratic senator—Reed of Missouri—recorded in favor of any modifications of the treaty. The president also believes that so far as the Shantung agreement is concerned he will be able to explain his action in this connection so that certain Republican votes which are lined up in opposition to the treaty largely because of this one provision, will be available for ratification.

The president is very anxious, his advisors say, to explain the Shantung situation to the senate. He has discovered that many of the facts concerning these negotiations have not been made plain, even to administration lieutenants, in the upper branch of congress. When the president appears before the foreign relations committee to tell of these negotiations he will make the following revelations:

First, that Great Britain, France and Italy had bound themselves in the most explicit terms, by a secret treaty entered into with Japan at the commencement of the war to confer in perpetuity on Japan all rights and benefits enjoyed by Germany under its "term" treaty with China extorted from the latter country.

Second, that the Chinese government also had entered into a secret agreement with Tokyo—Chinese diplomats say it was extorted—whereby Japan was given concessions along the lines of the so-called 22 demands originally insisted on by Japan and later reluctantly withdrawn following a vigorous protest by the state department.

Third, that when he (President Wilson) after a conference with Wellington Koo, one of the Chinese peace commissioners, protested against Japan retaining any rights whatever at Shantung, the representative of Great Britain, Mr. Lloyd George; of France, M. Clemenceau and of Italy, Senor Orlando, produced the secret treaty and announced that its terms were in every way binding upon them and that they were prepared to insist that Japan should have all concessions promised. This left the United States absolutely alone in opposition.

Fourth, that for more than ten days he (the president) fought the Japanese claims with the result that he secured the following modifications, which were agreed to by the Japanese peace delegates and ratified by the British, French and Italian premiers: That Japan will surrender to China all territorial rights within the fortified area of Tsing Tau; agree to withdraw all Japanese troops from the area of the peninsula, reserving only the right to create four settlements thereon, but outside of the fortified districts; that Japan will substitute Chinese police for Japanese railway guards, reserving the right, however, first to train them with Japanese officers; that Japan will retain the ownership and operation rights of the railway lines on the peninsula but will accept jurisdiction by the League of Nations council when formed regarding the term that ownership and operation shall continue.

How far this explanation will go towards satisfying the senators who have opposed the Shantung settlement in every way, cannot be forecast at the present time. However, administration leaders believe that it will win votes in as much as it is conceded that the president found the cards stacked on this question and Japan and her claims solidly supported by her original allies in the war.

So far as opposition to section 10 of the League of Nations constitution is concerned, the president, his advisors say, will call the attention of the senators to the fact that in order that any action under that section should be binding upon the United States that action must be approved by the United States itself through its representative on the council. And it will be argued that approval would certainly be withheld until the attitude of the American people towards the problem under discussion could be ascertained.

The president was said today by officials of the administration to be very confident that when he has had opportunity to reveal the various details of the negotiations at Paris to the senators a good part of the opposition to the treaty will disappear.

HOW EUROPE REJOICED WHEN PEACE TREATY WAS SIGNED

Great crowd in Trafalgar Square, London, celebrating signing of peace treaty.

America took the signing of the peace treaty by the Germans very calmly—as a matter of fact, so to say. But Europeans went almost as wild with joy as they did the day the armistice was signed.

The picture shows how London folk turned out in a riotous crowd to celebrate the event.

LITTLE LENIENCY IN OHIO FOR CON- VICTED MURDERERS

Columbus, July 15.—Eight men are in the death house at the Ohio penitentiary awaiting electrocution for murder. Two others in the state are under sentence to death at the same place, but have not yet been delivered to the prison. When they arrive all cells the state has provided for those awaiting execution will be filled. If others are sent other quarters will have to be provided.

In addition to the 10 mentioned 50 men reached the Ohio penitentiary between Jan. 1 and July 1 to serve life terms, 40 of them having been convicted of murder, five of rape and five for burglary of an inhabited dwelling in the night season.

Both the number waiting electrocution and the number sent to do life terms in a six months period are far above the average number received there over a terms of years. The more general infliction of the life terms and of the death penalty reflect the stern manner in which criminal laws of the state are now being enforced.

There is little matter in which county a murder, a criminal assault or a burglary in the night season occurs the public sentiment against crime is so strong, the courts are prompt in putting a man on trial, the juries are quick and certain in laying on the highest penalty possible for the crime. Recommendations of mercy in life sentences are extremely scarce.

Acquittals for crimes charged, no matter what the degree, are still more seldom met. The public, busy with the important matters pertaining to reconstruction after the war has but limited consideration for men who disregard the law. It quickly puts the trouble makers away from the public whose rights they have disregarded and invaded.

LABOR MUST ORGANIZE DOWN TO LAST MAN

Columbus, O., July 15.—Addressing 800 delegates to the first annual convention of the Pennsylvania system federation in session here, Carl Thompson, Chicago, exponent of the plum plan of government ownership declared that the time is here when labor must organize to the last man. "When this is done to the fullest extent the world will belong to it," said Thompson.

The delegates represent 40,000 employees of the Pennsylvania between New York and St. Louis.

MUST WED TO BE HEIR.

Hominy, Okla., July 14. — F. B. Hamilton, thirty-five, a confirmed bachelor and woman hater, is facing a dilemma: the most serious in all his life. He has to get married—if he expects to inherit the estate of his uncle, D. E. Hamilton, of Polk County, Tenn. An ultimatum to this effect was contained in legal papers delivered to him here.

DENY REPORT THAT SECRETARY LANSING EXPECTS TO RESIGN

Washington, July 15.—There is absolutely no truth in Paris dispatches stating that Secretary of State Lansing is to resign his cabinet position because he is dissatisfied with the peace treaty.

This was emphatically stated by state department officials today when their attention was called to the rumor.

"I am in a position to say that there is absolutely nothing to it," declared one of the highest officials of the department.

TWO COURSES OF ACTION CONSIDERED BY PHONE STRIKERS

Cleveland, July 15.—Leaders in the Cleveland Telephone and electrical workers' strike were considering two courses of action today to bring about victory in their fight for recognition of the union.

The first involved plans for a general strike in Cleveland in sympathy with the phone operators.

The second would result in the calling of a nation wide strike of electrical workers.

The strike today settled down apparently into a protracted struggle. Postmaster General Burleson wired orders to the heads of the phone companies that service should be resumed at the earliest possible moment. He also wired interpretation of order No. 3209 under which the strikers demand recognition of the union.

His interpretation which does not require the companies to recognize the union, the strikers claim is a virtual repudiation of the agreement under which the nation wide strike of electrical workers was called off and threaten to bring about the national strike.

John D. Groves, secretary of the electrical workers union, will confer with heads of the Cleveland federation of labor with regards to calling a general sympathetic strike.

Meanwhile the Bell company is maintaining nearly normal service although the Ohio State system is still badly crippled.

CANADIANS SEND TO ENGLAND TO GET FEW BRIDES

LONDON, July 15.—The cries of "there are more women than men in England" and "what will we do with our surplus of women?" seem to have been solved by the floods of offers of marriage that have poured into England from Canada. Women are needed out there, according to the plaints of bachelors. Extracts from some of the letters received are as follows:

"If you have someone from thirty-five to forty; I am forty-two. I am not very good looking myself, but I have a heart like an ox."

"I am not particular about looks, but like character and amiability. I prefer one who weighs not more than 130 pounds and should be satisfied with one of 120 pounds."

"I am a widower, thirty-eight years old, do not drink, smoke, chew or swear."

"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach," writes one philosophic man. "I've been thirty-five years in America and have never tasted a Yorkshire pudding."

"They've never heard of them here. I want a woman who can give me English cooking."

WOMAN FOUND GUILTY OF SLAYING MAN

Chicago, July 15.—Mme. Vera Trepagnier, 59, slayer of Paul Volland, commercial art publisher, today faces a sentence of from one year to life in the penitentiary. She was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury.

Mme. Trepagnier was the 28th woman to be tried for murder of a man in Cook county, since 1907, and the first to be convicted. Her case, however, was unusual in that it involved no element of sex.

Volland was shot and killed in his office on May 5, during a dispute over the ownership of a small miniature of George Washington.

FOUR BALLOONS CAUGHT IN STORM

Omaha, Neb., July 15.—Four army balloons that started from Fort Omaha Sunday in attempts to set new height and distance records, are awaiting repairs today at various points in Iowa and Wisconsin. All four were brought to earth by the severe storm which swept the upper Mississippi valley yesterday and they were severely buffeted.

One of the balloons landed at Raleigh Iowa, 223 miles from here; another at Portage, Wis., 40 miles away; another at Green, Wis., 250 miles away and the fourth at Ringstead, Iowa, about 200 miles northeast of Omaha.

No new records were established and the aeronauts are regarded as fortunate in being able to land safely after their all night battle with the storm.

UNDERWOOD SPEAKS IN FAVOR OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Washington, July 15.—Characterizing the League of Nations as "the starting of the highway of peace," Senator Oscar Underwood of Alabama, who heretofore had been regarded as a doubtful supporter of the league, announced in a speech in the senate this afternoon that he would support the league without amendment or reservation.

"We face a condition not a theory," said Underwood. "Dangers to our people and our republic that weren't dreamed of a century ago confront us today at our very doors, a threatening menace to our lives, our civilization and our institutions. Shall we continue to dream of the ideals of the past, or meet as practical men the dangers of the future?"

"The foremost question in the mind of America today is the future preservation of the peace of the world and well may this be so. There may have been many causes of war in the past, but the dominating cause of war among the great nations of the world have been the desire for the possession of land and colonies."

"I am not prepared to say that the adoption of the present treaty carries within itself the elimination of these causes of war, or that in the end there will be no more wars; but I do say that, within the folds of this treaty, we find an agreement between the great nations of the world that will probably in the future carry the questions of national dispute to a court of final arbitration, and in main, if not most instances, avoid the horrors and injustices of war."

"Let me say that I do not regard the organization of the League as a super government. No super government could exist without power to maintain itself."

"The announcement of withdrawal from the compact by either France, the United States or Great Britain would at once destroy the binding force and moral power of the League in the world's affairs. So, with the right to withdraw, I feel that there is no need to fear the dangerous surrender of any of the fundamental principles and rights of the American people. Therefore, I am willing to take it and try it and hope that from the seed that is planted today, in its fruition the final peace of the world may be found."

"This is not a strong or definite agreement, but out of its terms, I am hopeful that there will come a gradual disarmament of the world, the lifting of the burden of the preparation for war from the shoulders of striving humanity and the greater inducement to settle disputes through the high court of arbitration, rather than the decision of brutal force."

MINE EXPLODES SINKING A U. S. MINE SWEEPER

Washington, July 15.—Lieut. Commander Frank R. King and six members of the crew of the U. S. S. trawler Richard Buckley were killed while mine sweeping in the North Sea on July 12, Vice Admiral Knapp today informed the navy department.

The fatality was caused by the explosion of a mine the men had just removed from the water.

OHIO AUTOMOBILES KILL 668 PERSONS

Columbus, July 15.—Youngsters between the age of 5 and 9 and men between 35 and 39 predominated among those killed by autos.

Figures compiled by Dr. John E. Monger, state registrar of vital statistics, show that of 668 persons killed by autos during 1918, 102 were between 5 and 9; the next number based on five-year ago periods, was 53 for persons between 35 and 39. Forty-six were under 5; two over 90.

August, with 83 deaths, was the most fatal month.

Based on last year's auto license one machine in every 617 killed a person.

Deaths from this cause are increasing yearly, it is shown. During 1915 the number was 304; 1916, 412, and 1917, 617.

Of those killed last year, 509 were males and 159 females.

Cleveland, O., July 15.—Grain fields were laid waste, telephone and telegraph wires torn down, hot houses destroyed, trees uprooted and orchards badly damaged by severe wind and rain storms during the past 24 hours in northern Ohio.

NO TOBACCO CORPORATION RUNS INTO SNAG

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 15.—The No-Tobacco Corporation which proposed to run tobacco out of the country in the wake of booze, ran into a snag at the beginning of its young life. Judge James McF. Carpenter refused to grant the organization a charter.

The law was not intended to provide for the incorporation of associations to originate and foster theories as to the effects and consequences of personal habits and immemorial customs, said the Judge, especially if not "contra bonos mores" concerning the consequences of which laymen and physicians disagree.

THIEF STEALS CAR WHILE THE FAMILY TAKES DIP IN WATER

Boston, July 15.—The meanest thief in the world has been found!

Francis Klay of East Braintree is the finder. With his family he toured to Nantasket Beach and there he and his family doffed their outer clothing and proceeded to enjoy the cool waters—in their bathing suits.

Hardly had they reached the surf when up stole the bold, bad thief and rode away with the machine, the Klay family clothes and everything.

The Metropolitan park police were notified at once. Time passed. So did curious bathers who heard of the plight of the Klays.

Finally came a friend. The situation was explained. After more delay the Klays floundered home. Shortly after arriving came word of the recovery of the car, but Mr. Klay's bankroll of $50 and a gold watch were listed among the missing.

WOMAN PROSTRATED BY HEAT FALLS AND IS BADLY INJURED

The first prostration as a result of the torrid heat of the last few days occurred here Monday afternoon, when Mrs. James Millen, who lives on the Roy McClellan farm near Xenia on the Cincinnati pike, fell in a faint on Detroit street in front of the Donges drug store about 3:15 o'clock.

Mrs. Millen was picked up and carried into the drug store and Drs. W. H. Finley and R. R. McClellan were called, and found that in falling she had suffered a dislocation of the shoulder and had badly bruised her face. She was later removed to her home by W. H. Donges in his automobile and Tuesday she was able to sit up.

Mrs. Millen had walked into the city, the distance being about a mile and it is thought that the exertion, coupled with the intense heat of the day, caused her to be prostrated. She recovered quickly after being attended by the doctors, and her condition would not have been serious had it not been for the injuries she sustained in falling.

Fifty girls and young women were reported forcibly carried off by the Tartar soldiers.

MISS ANNE WEAVER BECOMES BRIDE OF SCHUYLER MCCLELLAN

Very simple was the marriage ceremony by which Miss Anne Elizabeth Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Weaver, became the bride of Schuyler Niekirk McClellan. The service took place at the Weaver home on South Detroit street, at 6 o'clock Monday evening with the Rev. E. W. Thornton of Cincinnati a cousin of the bride, officiating.

The upstairs sitting room of the Weaver home, where the service was read, was made lovely with baskets and bouquets of flowers, in a simple but effective arrangement.

There were no attendants upon the bride and groom, and only the members of their immediate families were present. A ring service, beautiful and impressive was used by Rev. Thornton in uniting the bride and groom.

Attired in her traveling costume the bride was very lovely. She wore a suit of faille in walnut shade, with a tailored georgette blouse, and corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McClellan motored to the Pennsylvania station, where they boarded a train for the east. They will be at Atlantic City, and other places on the seaboard for about three weeks. Returning to Xenia they will be at home at the Weaver residence on South Detroit street.

Owing to the ill health of the bride's mother, the wedding arrangements were made simple. The only out of town guest was the bride's sister, Mrs. Norman Buxton of Johnston, Ohio.

Mrs. McClellan is one of Xenia's favorite girls. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Weaver, and a graduate of Mary Baldwin Seminary at Staunton, W. Va. Mr. McClellan received his education at Staunton Military Academy at Staunton, and it was during their school days that the friendship between the two young people grew into a warmer attraction.

Mr. McClellan served in the medical corps during the war, and was stationed at Fox Hill, L. I. Island base hospital. He has specialized in X-ray work, and is now X-ray technician at the McClellan Hospital.

WILLIAM ELLIOT DIES AT INFIRMARY

William Elliot, died at the County Infirmary at one o'clock Monday afternoon, after a long illness. He had been a sufferer from cancer of the stomach and was operated for that trouble at the Espey Hospital four weeks ago.

Mr. Elliot was 64 years of age. He was born in Beavercreek township and had lived all of his life in this county, his home being one mile west of Alpha up to the time he was removed to the County hospital. Mr. Elliot was never married, but he is survived by three brothers and three sisters. Charles of Dayton, James of Alpha and George of near Xenia, Mrs. B. E. Spahr and Mrs. Julia Beal of near Paintersville and Mrs. Gilbert Conklin of Bowersville.

The body was removed to the Nagley undertaking establishment where funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial will be made at Mt. Zion.

JAMESTOWN

The union services at the Friends church on Sunday evening were very well attended, considering the intense heat. The Rev. Harley Moore, pastor of the M. E. church at Bowersville, gave the sermon, taking for his text, "Sir, We Would See Jesus," from the 21st verse of the 12th chapter of St. John. He dwelt upon the mission work abroad, and strongly emphasized the fact that Christ must dwell in the lives of the people if the world is evangelized. The services will be held in the M. E. church on Sunday evening, the 20th. Mr. E. L. Smith, of the Church of Christ at Bowersville, will have the service.

Mrs. L. A. Smith has returned from Dayton, where she spent a couple of weeks with her brother, L. E. Weed and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Benegar of Springfield, were Sunday guests of the former's father, C. R. Benegar, and his aunt, Miss Margaret Benegar. Dr. J. C. Brown, of Indianapolis, a veterinarian, was the week end guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Bowers.

Mr. J. A. Cargill, minister of the Church of Christ, who has been so seriously ill, has been taken to a hospital at Dayton.

Mrs. Rowd Shaw and little daughter Gwendolyn, have gone to London to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Evans, for several days.

Mrs. W. H. Pegan, of Xenia, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ford Latham.

Mrs. Eva Smith, of Oklahoma City, Okla., is visiting relatives in and near Jamestown, having come to visit her son, Charles Sites, who has recently returned from overseas, and is making his home with Okie Spahr and family.

On Saturday Mr. Archie Gordon met with a painful accident. He was engaged in placing hay in the mow of his barn, when a portion of the floor gave way, allowing him to fall through. He had a three pronged fork in his hand, which as he fell, dropped with its prongs upward, one prong piercing the thick flesh in his leg above the knee, with such force that it was broken off, and Mr. Gordon, with superhuman strength, pulled the broken piece out. He is suffering considerably now from it. It seems like a miracle that he escaped with his life as he fell right into a lot of machinery. The physician thinks he will get along if nothing develops.

The Misses Eloise Farquhar and Martha Smith are spending the week in Cincinnati, with the former's grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Acorn. Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Henry have had for their guests, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Haskins, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith and daughter, Genevieve, all of New Vienna.

Mrs. Frank Kelley has been spending a few days with Mrs. Kate Cruzen, at Grove City.

Mrs. Fannie Goodbar, of Morrow, is visiting with friends in Jamestown. Miss Mary, daughter of Mrs. Laura Paul, of Milwaukee, Wis., has joined her mother here for a visit with relatives. Miss Paul is a teacher in the schools of Milwaukee, and could not come to Jamestown when her mother did.

Mr. E. A. Allen who bought the grain and coal business here, of George & Ervin Bros., is removing his family from Cedarville to the property he purchased of R. D. Bryan, on S. Church street.

Mrs. Mary Frye has entered the McClellan hospital at Xenia for an operation, having been in poor health for the past year.

Miss Hazel McDill, of the O. S. and S. O. Home, at Xenia, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Charles McDill.

Mr. E. A. Allen, of the local elevator, states that the wheat he is taking in will rate as No. 2, in quality, and he is paying the government fixed price, $2.26 per bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith and son Larris, were Xenia and Dayton visitors on Saturday.

MOTORAIDS

A prominent manufacturer claims that there are ten or twelve points which must be considered in a gasoline engine to judge it properly. An engine should be equipped with a magneto, for this is constant in action and will not become exhausted like a battery. Also, the connections and the wiring are more simple. It is a very good plan to purchase a car having both systems, the battery and the magneto which will furnish two distinct sparking sets. It is not probable that both sets will fail at the

How You May Reduce Your Weight

Overstoutness is a very unwelcome condition, especially in the present day, when slender figures are so popular, and every reader of this paper who has noticed a tendency to put on weight will be glad to know of a new, simple home treatment that is remarkably efficient and inexpensive.

If you happen to be one of those whose weight is more than it should be, don't try to reduce by starving yourself; eat all you want, but take after each meal and at bed times five grains of Phynola which you can secure at any drug store.

Phynola is designed to increase the oxygen carrying power of the blood and dissolves fatty tissue, in many cases at the rate of a pound a day. It is pleasant to take and gives remarkable results quickly and easily. Sayre & Hemphill can supply you. adv

The cooling system is another point to consider. On a stationary engine the hopper cooler is considered the best as it is the simplest kind and the most positive in action. Some engines are quite efficient with air cooled cylinders but the water system is safer especially in hot weather.

It is quite necessary to see if the fly wheel runs true as this will indicate that first class work has been done on the engine. While running this should not cause any jar to the engine, which should show that it was properly balanced.

SOME IMPORTANT QUESTIONS ASKED HEREIN.

There is scarcely any one who will dispute the fact that the great men who sat at the Paris Peace Table achieved progress never before approached in the history of the world. They have got for us, and for mankind, the best league against future wars ever devised by man. Previous attempts in this direction had been of such a selfish nature that there was no cohesive power—like the old man's prayer for "me and my wife, my son John and his wife, us four and no more."

But good as this league against war is, it will only bring permanent peace to the world by the Powers which created it standing firmly behind it, and using its machinery, promptly and vigorously, to prevent war. They can do this if they have the courage of enlightened manhood to see, with the mind's eye, the boon this will be to future generations—the Hope of the World.

Our Allies in this great cause of Humanity propose to do this. They have pledged themselves to do so. They realize the far reaching tentacles this treaty contains for the peace of the world—more particularly to prevent the strong nations from abusing and oppressing weaker nations. They recognize in it a treaty in which all nations bind themselves solemnly to give each other a "Square Deal." In the name of all that is honest, why should not our nation agree to this?

One thing is certain and that is, that this wonderfully compiled treaty, the most far reaching and important that the world has ever seen, would be less than a scrap of paper if disassociated from the League of Nations. Rip the League out of it and where is left the power to enforce it? Who would back the commissions which must direct the indemnity levies which Germany is required to pay? Who would fix the military establishments of the Allied nations with the policy we have imposed on Germany? Who would govern the recently liberated domains of the dead despotism—lift them to their feet, and adjust the differences which are bound to arise? Who, we ask, if you cut out the League of Nations, the police power of the Treaty, would do all these essential things?

Nobody contends that the League of Nations is perfect. In many respects Mr. Wilson would have had it different, but he had strenuous partners in its compilation and there had to be concessions. In this world the man who expects to have his own way about everything will get many a bump from a low bridge. The League with Nations was the best we could get. It is a well known fact that our world-famous Federal Constitution was anathematized, while in formation, as a "league with hell."

Nine-tenths of the people of this nation want the treaty ratified, and the Senators who are "polyfoxing" about it are misrepresenting their constituents.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS.

SANDRA IS REBUKED AND DISAPPOINTED.

CHAPTER XIII.

"Why there's Everett—Mr. Graham!" I exclaimed to Mr. Halliday. "Let us go over and join him."

"Do you think that is wise? I imagine he is talking business and we would interrupt him."

"Oh, do you think so?" We had finished our luncheon. The waiter had just placed our coffee on the table.

"Yes, we have nearly finished; they haven't commenced. I think it would be very unwise to disturb them."

I did not know what to do. It seemed terrible to have Everett, my husband, in the same room and not to speak to him; yet if Mr. Halliday were right and he was talking business with his companion, he might be cross with me for interrupting him. I would be guided by Mr. Halliday. He was a man and probably knew more about such things than I did. So I drank my coffee and then followed him from the restaurant, looking back longingly at Everett, what I could see of him—as I did so.

Mr. Halliday walked to the hotel with me, and thanked me so nicely for lunching with him, said I had made his day brighter and other complimentary things. I really felt before he left me that I had done a favor to one of Everett's friends, and could scarcely wait until he came back to the hotel to tell him.

He came in about 3 o'clock. I was lying on the couch reading. I jumped up immediately he came in and kissed him, not only affectionately, but effusively. Then, without waiting for him to say anything, I at once started to tell my story.

"You lunched at the Traymore with Halliday?" he interrupted.

"Yes. I was looking in a store window and he saw me and asked me to take pity on him and lunch with him. As I had to lunch alone, I went with him. He was lovely to me, and said I had made the time pass so quickly and lots of nice things. If all of your friends are as nice as he is, I shall like them I am sure. Then you came in and I awfully wanted to go over and sit with you and your friend, but we had nearly finished when you came in and Mr. Halliday said we might disturb you." I stopped for breath.

Everett had not attempted to interrupt me. Now he said:

"I should prefer that you would not lunch with men without my consent. I am glad that Halliday had sense enough to keep you from rushing over and annoying me. But such escapades are unbecoming in a married woman."

"Escapades—oh Everett! I really didn't have nearly so good a time as I would have had with you. At first I could scarcely speak to him I was so embarrassed because you weren't along. I didn't want to lunch with him one single bit."

"No one compelled you, did they?" Everett's tone was sarcastic.

"No—but—" his tonic had confused me, "wasn't it all right—he is your friend? You seemed to be friendly with him."

"What's that got to do with it? Are you planning to eat in public with men just because I happen to know them? Again his tone was disagreeable."

"Oh, you know I didn't plan it. Everett! I told you I met him when I was looking in a window. You know I wouldn't have done it for worlds if I had thought it would make you jealous." I had felt a little thrill at the thought that he cared enough to be suspicious, even at the same time that I was frightened that I had displeased him.

"Jealous! What makes you think I am jealous. I trust you will dismiss that idea at once. You are my wife, and I expect you to conduct yourself in a proper manner. But as for being jealous—you need not flatter yourself. Only next time get my permission."

Someway I felt awfully disappointed. I wanted him to be so in love with me that he would care about every bit of attention I received. I did not know then how terribly unhappy jealousy could make a person; or how it could ruin one's life. But it seemed that if he were jealous it was a sure sign of love.

That faith and trust are more positive signs of affection I had to learn. Tomorrow—Everett Takes His Bride Home.

Constipation Results When Hot Weather Stops Exercise

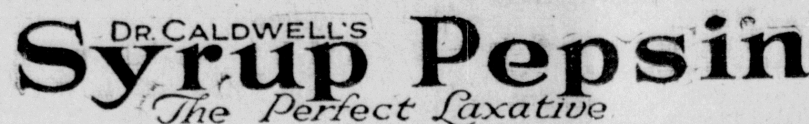

WHEN the system has become accustomed to a certain daily routine of exercise and food, health is quick to suffer if that routine is interfered with. The bowels are first to notice the change.

Different water is enough to constipate. Changes of food when traveling, much sitting by those accustomed to long walks will do it. It is especially true that when elderly people change their routine they quickly become constipated. Yet elderly people should be particularly careful to keep their bowels open, especially during the hot months.

A better remedy for the purpose cannot be found on a druggist's shelf than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin which trains the stomach-muscles to do their work naturally so that medicines can be dispensed with. Only a small dose is needed, and unlike harsh physics and cathartics, it acts gently and without griping.

PENNSY SHOPS MAY BE MOVED

There is a report that the Pennsylvania Railroad shops will be moved from Columbus to Covington, Miami county, owing to the central location of the village between Columbus, Chicago and St. Louis. It is stated that the company has had the plans to remove the shops under consideration for several years, but no decision was reached until recently when extensive improvements were made in the yards at Bradford, just west of Covington. Should the shops be moved to Covington, it will mean a great boom to that town as several hundred families will be brought to the place. Covington is about six miles west of Piqua.

Worth Keeping in Mind.

By all means adopt the two old-time slogans, "Have a time for everything and a place for everything." If hung where they can be seen without eye strain these twin suggestions will do a world of good and will be remembered long after gay posters, which litter every place, have been torn down and consigned to the scrap heap.

JUST WON'T LEAVE PRISON.

Ossining, N. Y., July 15.—Warden Brophy at Sing Sing has a "guest." He is Charles Ortner, who ever since November 30 has refused to accept a parole, to which he is entitled. Ortner says he likes the place. He was worried for a time because it was considering stopping his pay—1 1/2 cents a day—but now it has been decided to keep his "check" coming, so Ortner is going to stay as long as he can.

THEATERS

BLIQU.

There is a particularly complicated plot back of the latest Vivian Martin picture "An Innocent Adventuress" which Artcraft presentation appears at the Bijou theater Wednesday.

Miss Martin is a demure Miss who by her mere innocence becomes entangled in crooked deals. She is particularly clever in the part which is well adapted to her, and her support is excellent, including Loyd Hughes, Edythe Chapman, Gertrude Norman, James Wolff, Tom D. Bates, Hal Clements, James Farley and Spottiswoode Aitken.

ORPHIUM.

A really clever cast has been selected by Triangle to depict "The Little Rowdy," which appears at the Orphium theater Wednesday.

Hazel Daly, has the title role, which offers her splendid opportunities and Harry Hilliard, who won his screen fame as Romeo to Theda Bara's Juliet, plays opposite her. Sidney Ainsworth is also in the cast. The story is a bright, breezy comedy of the better sort which is intensely interesting.

HUGE GERMAN PIPE ON DISPLAY IN XENIA

A huge German hand-carved meerschau pipe is on display in the window of the C. A. Weaver clothing store.

The pipe is the property of Clyde Kussmaul, who lately returned from France, and was presented to him by an old Frenchman, with whom he had become friendly while in that country.

The pipe is over 250 years of age, and was handed down in the French family since then, the family having the pipe in their possession before being driven from their homes at the time of the Franco-Prussian war. The meerschau and the ivory embellishments are all hand carved and the sterling silver lid over the bowl is also hand wrought.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Attorney Charles W. Whitmer was one of the victims of the "old boss" sale in front of the court house today. A valuable looking package was bid in by him for sixty-five cents and when he opened it he found a toy chair which can be purchased any place for five cents. He will keep it as a souvenir of how the Adams Express Co. got ahead of a lawyer. Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Messenger of the O. S. and S. O. Home have gone to West Virginia, where they will take an outing with some of Mrs. Messenger's relatives, camping there.

ORPHIUM TO-NIGHT

"THE LOVE DEFENDER"

World 5 reel picture featuring JUNE ELVIDGE, FRANK MAYO, MADGE EVANS. The cast as a whole is good. A very interesting story that is true to life. How some see their own unhappiness.

"THE LURE OF THE CIRCUS"

A Woman's Message to Women:

(TRADE-MARK)

CINCINNATI, OHIO.
"When I received your generous trial treatment, I was run-down, almost a wreck, could scarcely stay up to do my work. I had little interest in life, was irritable beyond control; but believe me when I say your treatment gave relief at once, and now I feel like a new woman. The terrible pains in my side and the heavy dragging-down feeling are all gone. I honestly believe I was saved from an operation. Mrs. Summers' Ovarine Remedy is truly a Godsend to suffering women. Please print this if it will lead any sufferer to recovery."
MRS. T. G. CARTER, 399 Russell Ave.

DETROIT, MICH.
"Six months ago I wrote for a sample of Mrs. Summers' Ovarine treatment. I had spent hundreds of dollars seeking health, before I overcame my prejudice to advertised medicines and used your remedy. I was just at the point of having an operation, as I was in terrible shape from not having proper care after confinement. I ordered six boxes of your treatment, and today I am a well woman, can do my work and enjoy myself. Words cannot express my gratitude. Use my letter wherever you wish, as I am convinced there is nothing in the world like the Ovarine Treatment."
MRS. CHARLES LENTZ, 816 Sheridan Street.

Only a Woman Knows a Woman's Trials and Understands Her Need of Sympathy and Help. That is why hundreds of women gladly testify to the value of Mrs. Summers' popular Ovarine Home Treatment in relieving so much of the misery and suffering known only to woman-kind. READER, if you are troubled with some of those special ailments of women—

SEND FOR A FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT with illustrated, descriptive copy of "Woman's Own Medical Adviser." PEPSINCO

Don't burn good fuel in a poor stove

It's a useless waste of good fuel and a needless extravagance to try to burn it in a poor stove. It is absolutely wrong to expect good food to supply energy, vitality, health and happiness if your stomach won't absorb and assimilate it. If you cannot eat with enjoyment, if your food does you no good, if food distresses rather than benefits, then you have indigestion or dyspepsia. The best remedy to use is PEPsinco.

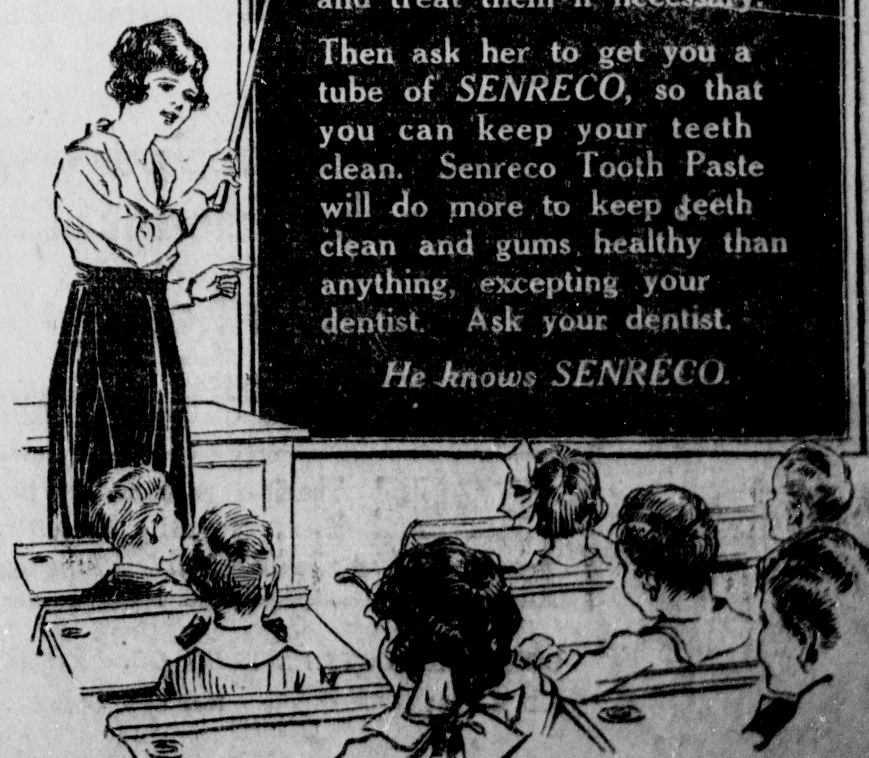

Ask your druggist—he sells and recommends Pepsinco.

Suit to secure judgment for $607 commission on the sale of a 207 acre farm has been brought by T. C. Long and L. T. Marshall against J. W. and Mary O. Benigar. The plaintiff set forth that they were employed by the defendants to obtain a buyer for the farm, and that they furnished the defendants with the names of Percy Smith and Steve Phillips as possible purchasers of the property. The farm was sold to Percy Smith, for $33,500, the petition recites, and it is alleged that the defendants violated the contract by refusing to pay to the plaintiffs the commission of 2 per cent.

Alleging that his wife neglected her household duties and absented herself from home for long periods, Coe Cassell has brought suit for divorce from Nellie Cassell. They were married August 4, 1914.

REFUSE KILLS HUNDREDS OF FISH IN RIVER

Their gills clogged with refuse said to be from the plant of the Hager Board and Paper Company at Cedarville, and helpless through inability to breathe, hundreds of fish in the Little Miami River and Massie's Creek fell victim yesterday and today to men and boys who lined the banks, clubbed and captured the struggling creatures.

Fine bass, carp, shad and cat fish were captured by the tubfull. Left alone, the fish nearly always die, causing a more serious problem, and local authorities are taking no action to stop the wholesale taking of the creatures.

Deputy State Game Warden Karl E. Keller of West Carrollton, was notified of the situation Tuesday morning by an official of the Greene County Fish and Game Commission, and he is expected here today to make investigation.

Sidney Smith, son of Superintendent A. Z. Smith of the Hager Board and Paper Company, said Tuesday that the company has received no report of the reservoir in which the refuse pulp from the plant is kept, overflowing, or of the refuse escaping in any other manner, into Massie's Creek. Ben Moore of Clifton, is employed as watchman at the reservoir. Mr. Smith says, and there is no doubt that he would have reported to his employers if the refuse was escaping.

Mr. Smith says that he believes the trouble in Massie's creek and the river is caused by the crude oil placed on the streets in Cedarville, and washed down through the sewers into the creek by the heavy rains. The condition in the streams last summer, he says, arose shortly after the Cedarville streets were oiled, and recently oil was again placed on the thoroughfares in the village. Water pouring through the sewers after the rains a few days ago, he said, was dark brown. At Clifton, above the plant, he says, fish have been affected in the same manner.

Last year the paper company was fined $150 and costs by Magistrate J. E. Jones, accepting responsibility for condition of the water which resulted in the deaths of the fish.

Mr. Little, president of the paper company, said at the time that they did not believe the refuse from their reservoir had caused the trouble, but that if it had been the cause, the valves must have been opened by malicious or mischievous persons. Mr. Little promised then that a watchman would be placed at the reservoir, and he, the same day became a member of the Greene County Fish and Game Commission.

Whatever the foreign matter in the creek and Little Miami river, it was carried rapidly down stream by the high water due to the recent rains, and concentrated near the dam at Trebeins, where hundreds of fish, struggling in the water have been taken with ease by the crowds.

No action had been taken this morning to stop bathing in the river at Kil Kare Park, but Manager Ruhlman said that such action would be taken if the water were found to be polluted. An investigation of the condition was to be made Tuesday.

Members of the Greene County Fish and Game Commission, who are responsible for having the streams stocked with fish, are greatly annoyed over the condition.

Massie's Creek is the finest bass stream in the county. Fed by springs, its cold waters furnish a fine home for this beautiful and game fish, and the true sportsman feels deeply because of its wholesale slaughter.

HAPPY REUNION AND PICNIC HELD

A very happy reunion and picnic was held by members of the Rutherford and Powell families last Sunday in a grove on the Gurneyville pike near New Burlington. Seventy-five people attended, and at dinner which was laden with long table, which was laden with every picnic delicacy imaginable. Among those attending from this vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Woods and family, Frank Powell and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rheubert and family.

POOR AUTO BRAKES CAUSE OF ACCIDENTS

Are your automobile brakes in good condition?

This is the question that must be answered every day by motorists held responsible for many street accidents.

Poor brake lining and other brake defects result in inability to stop your car when running at an ordinary rate or speed.

Crowded traffic conditions, popular street crossings, school districts, playing children, increase danger and risk the man is running who knows that his brakes are not in good condition.

A chart showing the number of feet it should take a machine to come to a thorough stop when running at different rates of speed, has been hung up in police headquarters.

The chart is true to police traffic regulations.

According to the charted figures a machine running 10 miles an hour should stop in 9.2 feet; 15 miles an hour in 20.8 feet; 20 miles an hour, 37 feet; 25 miles, 58 feet; 30 miles, 83.3 feet; 35 miles, 113 feet; 40 miles, 148 feet; 50 miles, 231 feet.

Statistics have figured that 250,000 cars have faulty brakes being a constant menace to both motorist and pedestrian. It is also shown that one car in every ten has an accident each year.

This year it may be you! Are your brakes prepared for the strain of a sudden stop? A life may depend on them.

GRANGE NEWS

The members of the Greene County Pomona Grange are expecting their 8th annual Farmer's picnic to be the most successful one ever held. This big picnic will be held at Kil Kare park Thursday, July 24. There will be plenty of good speaking and lots of music. The two Grange speakers will be L. J. Taber, master of the Ohio State Grange and John C. Ketcham, master of the Michigan State Grange. These two men are well known to the farmers and Grangers of Greene county as the rural leaders of their respective states and are deep thinkers and splendid speakers. Mr. Taber has spoken in Greene county a number of times and Mr. Ketcham spoke at the picnic two years ago. Mr. Taber as a member of the legislative committee of the National Grange and Mr. Ketcham as lecturer of the National Grange, come in contact with rural leaders all over the country and thus are able to discuss agricultural questions from a national as well as a state and local standpoint. It is hoped a large number of farmers will attend the morning meet-

DENIES CHARGES MADE BY HIS WIFE IN DIVORCE PETITION

Denial of his wife's charges that he assaulted her, and declaring that he "bumped" her in the face while attempting to ward off an attack by her and her daughter, who were bombarding him with fists and a hat pin, Perry Wombold filed an answer and cross petition to the suit for divorce brought by Bessie Wombold.

Wombold is now in the work house, where he was sentenced by Judge J. C. Marshall after pleading guilty to a charge of assault made by his wife. He says that his health is poor, and if it continues to fail that he does not believe he can survive the term of his sentence.

In his answer he denies completely his wife's charges of cruelty. He admits that an "altercation" did take place between them, and that as a result the plaintiff, assisted by her daughter, cruelly assaulted him, crowding him into a corner and jabbing him with a hat pin. In the melee he avers his elbow struck his wife in the face.

She caused his arrest he says, and in order to prevent further humiliation, and in the supposition that he would be given a light fine, he pleaded guilty to her charge. He was fined $200 and costs and sentenced to six months in the work house.

He says that his wife has an ungovernable temper. He is difficult to live with, and that she designed to break him up. Her action, he declares, ruined him financially. Since he has been in the work house he has belonged to a chattel mortgage on his farm property in Sugar creek township foreclosed, and all he has left is the one-half interest in 25 acres of wheat. He also declares that his wife has sold the automobile, which belonged to him. The Wombolds were married in Dayton in 1911, and have three children. Both were married before and have children by those marriages.

The husband asks for custody of the children that he be awarded an interest in the tobacco crop, and his wife forced to divulge the name of the person to whom she sold the automobile.

FILMDOM MIRTH KING
GIVES WAY TO SORROW
Los Angeles, Cal., July 15—Charlie Chaplin, king of mirth-made no one laugh Sunday. Head bowed in grief, the man whose name brings a smile the world over, rode beside a little white casket to the cemetery here and saw his first born laid to eternal rest after a brief 72 hours of life.

Then, alone the man of laughter went out to his beautiful Hollywood home and in the door of the Mother Goose Nursery turned a little brass key. In that room Charlie Chaplin locked the toys of his Little Boy Blue never kissed good night. And of the days when he would be rollicking on the floor with a chubby lad bubbling with laughter.

For weeks Chaplin had thought of little else but the babe that was soon to be his. From the moment it arrived he stayed at its side at the hospital, first with all the proud joy of every father over his first born and then hoping against hope that the doctors were wrong—that the boy could live.

And when the wee heir to the throne in filmdom comedy breathed its last breath, the joy of life, for a time at least was gone from Charlie Chaplin.

WILSON WILL FIGHT TO LAST DITCH TO GAIN APPROVAL OF TREATY

By John Edwin Nevin.

Washington, July 15.—President Wilson will fight to the last ditch against reservations by the United States to the German peace treaty. This was again emphasized by administration leaders today.

Predictions that the president would agree to inconsequential changes thru reservations to "save the faces" of certain senators, were said to be utterly without foundation by administration leaders. They insisted that president has thoroughly canvassed the general situation and that he is convinced the opposition cannot muster enough senate votes for any single reservation in order to incorporate it in the treaty.

Since his arrival in Washington the president has dealt personally with certain Democrat senators who were reported to be wavering in their report of the treaty. As a result of these conferences, Mr. Wilson was said by the men closest to him to be certain that there will not be more than one democratic senator—Reed of Missouri—recorded in favor of any modifications of the treaty. The president also believes that so far as the Shantung agreement is concerned he will be able to explain his action in this connection so that certain Republican votes which are lined up in opposition to the treaty largely because of this one provision, will be available for ratification.

The president is very anxious, his advisors say, to explain the Shantung situation to the senate. He has discovered that many of the facts concerning these negotiations have not been made plain, even to administration lieutenants, in the upper branch of congress. When the president appears before the foreign relations committee to tell of these negotiations he will make the following revelations:

First, that Great Britain, France and Italy had bound themselves in the most explicit terms, by a secret treaty entered into with Japan at the commencement of the war to confer in perpetuity on Japan all rights and benefits enjoyed by Germany under its "term" treaty with China extorted from the latter country.

Second, that the Chinese government also had entered into a secret agreement with Tokyo—Chinese diplomats say it was extorted—whereby Japan was given concessions along the lines of the so-called 22 demands originally insisted on by Japan and later reluctantly withdrawn following a vigorous protest by the state department.

Third, that when he (President Wilson) after a conference with Wellington Koo, one of the Chinese peace commissioners, protested against Japan retaining any rights whatever at Shantung, the representative of Great Britain, Mr. Lloyd George; of France, M. Clemenceau and of Italy, Senor Orlando produced the secret treaty and announced that its terms were in every way binding upon them and that they were prepared to insist that Japan should have all concessions promised. This left the United States absolutely alone in opposition.

Fourth, that for more than ten days he (the president) fought the Japanese claims with the result that he secured the following modifications which were agreed to by the Japanese peace delegates and ratified by the British, French and Italian premiers: That Japan will surrender to China all territorial rights within the fortified area of Tsing Tau; agree to withdraw all Japanese troops from the area of the peninsula, reserving only the right to create four settlements thereon, but outside of the fortified districts; that Japan will substitute Chinese police for Japanese railway guards, reserving the right, however, first to train them with Japanese officers; that Japan will retain the ownership and operation rights of the railway lines on the peninsula but will accept jurisdiction by the League of Nations council when formed regarding the term that ownership and operation shall continue.

How far this explanation will go towards satisfying the senators who have opposed the Shantung settlement in every way, cannot be forecast at the present time. However, administration leaders believe that it will win votes in as much as it is conceded that the president found the cards stacked on this question and Japan and her claims solidly supported by her original allies in the war.

So far as opposition to section 10 of the League of Nations constitution is concerned, the president, his advisors say, will call the attention of the senators to the fact that in order that any action under that section should be binding upon the United States that action must be approved by the United States itself through its representative on the council. And it will be argued that approval would certainly be withheld until the attitude of the American people towards the problem under discussion could be ascertained.

The president was said today by officials of the administration to be very confident that when he has had opportunity to reveal the various details of the negotiations at Paris to the senators a good part of the opposition to the treaty will disappear.

HOW EUROPE REJOICED WHEN PEACE TREATY WAS SIGNED

Great crown in Trafalgar Square, London, celebrating signing of peace treaty.

America took the signing of the peace treaty by the Germans very calmly—as a matter of fact, so to speak. But Europeans went almost as wild with joy as they did the day the armistice was signed.

The picture shows how London folk turned out in a riotous crowd to celebrate the event.

LITTLE LENIENCY IN OHIO FOR CON- VICTED MURDERERS

Columbus, July 15.—Eight men are in the death house at the Ohio penitentiary awaiting electrocution for murder. Two others in the state are under sentence to death at the same place but have not yet been delivered to the prison. When they arrive all cells the state has provided for those awaiting execution will be filled. If others are sent other quarters will have to be provided.

In addition to the 10 mentioned 50 men reached the Ohio penitentiary between Jan. 1 and July 1 to serve life terms, 40 of them having been convicted of murder, five of rape and five for burglary of an inhabited dwelling in the night season.

Both the number waiting electrocution and the number sent to do life terms in a six months period are far above the average number received there over a terms of years. The more general infliction of the life terms and of the death penalty reflect the stern manner in which criminal laws of the state are now being enforced.

There is little matter in which county a murder, a criminal assault or a burglary in the night season occurs, the public sentiment against crime is so strong, the courts are prompt in putting a man on trial, the juries are quick and certain in laying on the highest penalty possible for the crime. Recommendations of mercy in life sentences are extremely scarce.

Acquittals for crimes charged, no matter what the degree, are still more seldom met. The public busy with the important matters pertaining to reconstruction after the war has but limited consideration for men who disregard the law. It quickly puts the trouble makers away from the public whose rights they have disregarded and invaded.

LABOR MUST ORGANIZE DOWN TO LAST MAN

Columbus, O., July 15.—Addressing 800 delegates to the first annual convention of the Pennsylvania system federation in session here, Carl Thompson, Chicago, exponent of the plum plan of government ownership declared that the time is here when labor must organize to the last man. "When this is done to the fullest extent the world will belong to it," said Thompson.

The delegates represent 40,000 employees of the Pennsylvania between New York and St. Louis.

MUST WED TO BE HEIR.

Hominy, Okla., July 14. — F. B. Hamilton, thirty-five, a confirmed bachelor and woman hater, is facing a dilemma, the most serious in all his life. He has to get married—if he expects to inherit the estate of his uncle, D. E. Hamilton, of Polk County, Tenn. An ultimatum to this effect was contained in legal papers delivered to him here.

DENY REPORT THAT SECRETARY LANSING EXPECTS TO RESIGN

Washington, July 15.—There is absolutely no truth in Paris dispatches stating that Secretary of State Lansing is to resign his cabinet position because he is dissatisfied with the peace treaty.

This was emphatically stated by state department officials today when their attention was called to the rumor.

"I am in a position to say that there is absolutely nothing to it," declared one of the highest officials of the department.

TWO COURSES OF ACTION CONSIDERED BY PHONE STRIKERS

Cleveland, July 15.—Leaders in the Cleveland Telephone and electrical workers' strike were considering two courses of action today to bring about victory in their fight for recognition of the union.

The first involved plans for a general strike in Cleveland in sympathy with the phone operators.

The second would result in the calling of a nation wide strike of electrical workers.

The strike today settled down apparently into a protracted struggle. Postmaster General Burleson wired orders to the heads of the phone companies that service should be resumed at the earliest possible moment. He also wired interpretation of order No. 3209 under which the strikers demand recognition of the union.

His interpretation which does not require the companies to recognize the union, the strikers claim is a virtual repudiation of the agreement under which the nation wide strike of electrical workers was called off and threaten to bring about the national strike.

John D. Groves, secretary of the electrical workers union, will confer with heads of the Cleveland federation of labor with regards to calling a general sympathetic strike.

Meanwhile the Bell company is maintaining nearly normal service although the Ohio State system is still badly crippled.

CANADIANS SEND TO ENGLAND TO GET FEW BRIDES

LONDON, July 15.—The cries of "there are more women than men in England" and "what will we do with our surplus of women?" seem to have been solved by the floods of offers of marriage that have poured into England from Canada. Women are needed out there, according to the plaints of bachelors. Extracts from some of the letters received are as follows:

"If you have someone from thirty-five to forty; I am forty-two. I am not very good looking myself, but I have a heart like an ox."

"I am not particular about looks, but like character and amiability. I prefer one who weighs not more than 130 pounds and should be satisfied with one of 120 pounds."

"I am a widower, thirty-eight years old, do not drink, smoke, chew or swear."

"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach." writes one philosophic man. "I've been thirty-five years in America and have never tasted a Yorkshire pudding."

"They've never heard of them here. I want a woman who can give me English cooking."

WOMAN FOUND GUILTY OF SLAYING MAN

Chicago, July 15.—Mme. Vera Trepagnier, 59, slayer of Paul Volland, commercial art publisher, today faces a sentence of from one year to life in the penitentiary. She was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury.

Mme. Trepagnier was the 28th woman to be tried for murder of a man in Cook county, since 1907, and the first to be convicted. Her case, however, was unusual in that it involved no element of sex.

Volland was shot and killed in his office on May 5 during a dispute over the ownership of a small miniature of George Washington.

FOUR BALLOONS CAUGHT IN STORM

Omaha, Neb., July 15.—Four army balloons that started from Fort Omaha Sunday in attempts to set new height and distance records, are awaiting repairs today at various points in Iowa and Wisconsin. All four were brought to earth by the severe storm which swept the upper Mississippi valley yesterday and they were severely buffeted.

One of the balloons landed at Raleigh Iowa, 223 miles from here; another at Portage, Wis., 40 miles away; another at Green, Wis., 250 miles away and the fourth at Ringstead, Iowa, about 200 miles northeast of Omaha.

No new records were established and the aeronauts are regarded as fortunate in being able to land safely after their all night battle with the storm.

UNDERWOOD SPEAKS IN FAVOR OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Washington, July 15.—Characterizing the League of Nations as "the starting of the highway of peace," Senator Oscar Underwood of Alabama, who heretofore had been regarded as a doubtful supporter of the league, announced in a speech in the senate this afternoon that he would support the league without amendment or reservation.

"We face a condition not a theory," said Underwood. "Dangers to our people and our republic that weren't dreamed of a century ago confront us today at our very doors, a threatening menace to our lives, our civilization and our institutions. Shall we continue to dream of the ideals of the past, or meet as practical men the dangers of the future?"

"The foremost question in the mind of America today is the future preservation of the peace of the world and well may this be so. There may have been many causes of war in the past, but the dominating causes of war among the great nations of the world have been the desire for the possession of land and colonies."

"I am not prepared to say that the adoption of the present treaty carries within itself the elimination of these causes of war, or that in the end there will be no more wars; but I do say that, within the folds of this treaty, we find an agreement between the great nations of the world that will probably in the future carry the questions of national dispute to a court of final arbitration, and in main, if not most instances, avoid the horrors and injustices of war."

"Let me say that I do not regard the organization of the League as a super government. No super government could exist without power to maintain itself."

"The announcement of withdrawal from the compact by either France, the United States or Great Britain would at once destroy the binding force and moral power of the League in the world's affairs. So, with the right to withdraw, I feel that there is no need to fear the dangerous surrender of any of the fundamental principles and rights of the American people. Therefore, I am willing to take it and try it and hope that from the seed that is planted today, in its fruition the final peace of the world may be found."

"This is not a strong or definite agreement, but out of its terms, I am hopeful that there will come a gradual disarmament of the world, the lifting of the burden of the preparation for war from the shoulders of striving humanity and the greater inducement to settle disputes through the high court of arbitration, rather than the decision of brutal force."

MINE EPXLODES SINKING A U. S. MINE SWEEPER

Washington, July 15.—Lieut. Commander Frank R. King and six members of the crew of the U. S. S. trawler Richard Buckley were killed while mine sweeping in the North Sea on July 12, Vice Admiral Knapp today informed the navy department.

The fatality was caused by the explosion of a mine the men had just removed from the water.

OHIO AUTOMOBILES KILL 668 PERSONS

Columbus, July 15.—Youngsters between the age of 5 and 9 and men between 35 and 39 predominated among those killed by autos.

Figures compiled by Dr. John E. Monger, state registrar of vital statistics, show that of 668 persons killed by autos during 1918, 162 were between 5 and 9; the next number based on five-year ago periods, was 53 for persons between 35 and 39. Forty-six were under 5; two over 90.

August, with 83 deaths, was the most fatal month.

Based on last year's auto license one machine in every 617 killed a person.

Deaths from this cause are increasing yearly, it is shown. During 1915 the number was 304; 1916, 412, and 1917, 617.

Of those killed last year, 509 were males and 159 females.

NO TOBACCO CORPORATION RUNS INTO SNAG

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 15.—The No-Tobacco Corporation which proposed to run tobacco out of the country in the wake of booze, ran into a snag at the beginning of its young life. Judge James McF. Carpenter refused to grant the organization a charter.

The law was not intended to provide for the incorporation of associations to originate and foster theories as to the effects and consequences of personal habits and immemorial customs, said the Judge, especially if not "contra bonos mores" concerning the consequences of which laymen and physicians disagree.

THIEF STEALS CAR WHILE THE FAMILY TAKES DIP IN WATER

Boston, July 15.—The meanest thief in the world has been found!

Francis Klay of East Braintree is the finder. With his family he toured to Nantasket Beach and there he and his family doffed their outer clothing and proceeded to enjoy the cool waters—in their bathing suits.

Hardly had they reached the surf when up stole the bold, bad thief and rode away with the machine, the Klay family clothes and everything.

The Metropolitan park police were notified at once. Time passed. So did curious bathers who heard of the plight of the Klays.

Finally came a friend. The situation was explained. After more delay the Klays flithered home. Shortly after arriving came word of the recovery of the car, but Mr. Klay's bankroll of $50 and a gold watch were listed among the missing.

Pimples, Sores, Humors And Skin Eruptions

Are Caused By Impure or Bad Blood—Internal Treatment Is Necessary.

There are a great many conditions of poor health caused by bad blood. WOMAN PROSTRATED BY HEAT FALLS AND IS BADLY INJURED

The first prostration as a result of the torrid heat of the last few days occurred here Monday afternoon, when Mrs. James Millen, who lives on the Roy McClellan farm near Xenia on the Cincinnati pike, fell in a faint on Detroit street in front of the Donges drug store about 3:15 o'clock. Mrs. Millen was picked up and carried into the drug store and Drs. W. H. Finley and R. R. McClellan were called, and found that in falling she had suffered a dislocation of the shoulder and had badly bruised her face. She was later removed to her home by W. H. Donges in his automobile and Tuesday she was able to sit up.

Mrs. Millen had walked into the city, the distance being about a mile and it is thought that the exertion, coupled with the intense heat of the day, caused her to be prostrated. She recovered quickly after being attended by the doctors and her condition would not have been serious had it not been for the injuries she sustained in falling.

MISS ANNE WEAVER BECOMES BRIDE OF SCHUYLER MCCLELLAN

Very simple was the marriage ceremony by which Miss Anne Elizabeth Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Weaver, became the bride of Schuyler Neukirk McClellan. The service took place at the Weaver home on South Detroit street, at 6 o'clock Monday evening with the Rev. E. W. Thornton of Cincinnati a cousin of the bride, officiating.

The upstairs sitting room of the Weaver home, where the service was read, was made lovely with baskets and bouquets of flowers, in a simple but effective arrangement.

There were no attendants upon the bride and groom, and only the members of their immediate families were present. A ring service, beautiful and impressive was used by Rev. Thornton in uniting the bride and groom.

Attired in her traveling costume, the bride was very lovely. She wore a suit of faille in walnut shade, with a tailored georgette blouse, and corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses. Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McClellan motored to the Pennsylvania station, where they boarded a train for the east. They will be at Atlantic City, and other places on the seaboard for about three weeks. Returning to Xenia they will be at home at the Weaver residence on South Detroit street.

Owing to the ill health of the bride's mother, the wedding arrangements were made simple. The only out of town guest was the bride's sister, Mrs. Norman Buxton of Johnston, Ohio.

Mrs. McClellan is one of Xenia's favorite girls. She is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Weaver, and a graduate of Mary Baldwin Seminary at Staunton, W. Va. Mr. McClellan received his education at Staunton Military Academy at Staunton, and it was during their school days that the friendship between the two young people grew into a warmer attraction.

The body was removed to the Nagley undertaking establishment where funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial will be made at Mt. Zion.

JAMESTOWN

The union services at the Friends church on Sunday evening were very well attended, considering the intense heat. The Rev. Harley Moore, pastor of the M. E. church at Bowersville, gave the sermon, taking for his text, "Sir, We Would See Jesus," from the 21st verse of the 12th chapter of St. John. He dwelt upon the mission work abroad, and strongly emphasized the fact that Christ must dwell in the lives of the people if the world is evangelized. The services will be held in the M. E. church on Sunday evening, the 20th. Mr. E. L. Smith, of the Church of Christ at Bowersville, will have the service.

Mrs. L. A. Smith has returned from Dayton, where she spent a couple of weeks with her brother, L. E. Weed and family.

He had a three pronged fork in his hand, which as he fell, dropped with its prongs upward, one prong piercing the thick flesh in his leg above the knee, with such force that it was broken off, and Mr. Gordon, with superhuman strength, pulled the broken piece out. He is suffering considerably now from it. It seems like a miracle that he escaped with his life as he fell right into a lot of machinery. The physician thinks he will get along if nothing develops.

The Misses Eloise Farquhar and Martha Smith are spending the week in Cincinnati, with the former's grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Acomb. Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Henry have had for their guests, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Haskins, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith and daughter, Genevieve, all of New Vienna.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith and son Larris, were Xenia and Dayton visitors on Saturday.

MOTOR AIDS

A prominent manufacturer claims that there are ten or twelve points which must be considered in a gasoline engine to judge it properly. An engine should be equipped with a magnet, for this is constant in action and will not become exhausted like a battery. Also, the connections and the wiring are more simple. It is a very good plan to purchase a car having both systems, the battery and the magnet which will furnish two distinct sparking sets. It is not probable that both sets will fail at the

How You May Reduce Your Weight

The cooling system is another point to consider. On a stationary engine the hopper cooler is considered the best as it is the simplest kind and the most positive in action. Some engines are quite efficient with air cooled cylinders but the water system is safer especially in hot weather.

It is quite necessary to see if the fly wheel runs true as this will indicate that first class work has been done on the engine. While running this should not cause any jar to the engine, which should show that it was properly balanced.

"Repeatedly both declare that they would give their souls for but one week of life together!" Did this come about? Did Marion Roche and Kingsley Sherwood slip into oblivion to live SEVEN DAYS of life in their own way, unmolested by the cynical grin of others? SOME IMPORTANT QUESTIONS ASKED HEREIN.

There is scarcely any one who will dispute the fact that the great men who sat at the Paris Peace Table achieved progress never before approached in the history of the world. They have got for us, and for mankind, the best league against future wars ever devised by man.

Previous attempts in this direction had been of such a selfish nature that there was no cohesive power—like the old man's prayer for "me and my wife, my son John and his wife, us four and no more."

But good as this league against war is, it will only bring permanent peace to the world by the Powers which created it standing firmly behind it, and using its machinery, promptly and vigorously, to prevent war. They can do this if they have the courage of enlightened manhood to see, with the mind's eye, the boon this will be to future generations—the Hope of the World.

Our Allies in this great cause of Humanity propose to do this. They have pledged themselves to do so. They realize the far reaching tentacles this treaty contains for the peace of the world—more particularly to prevent the strong nations from abusing and oppressing weaker nations. They recognize in it a treaty in which all nations bind themselves solemnly to give each other a "Square Deal." In the name of all that is honest, why should not our nation agree to this?

One thing is certain and that is, that this wonderfully compiled treaty, the most far reaching and important that the world has ever seen, would be less than a scrap of paper if dissociated from the League of Nations. Rip the League out of it and where is left the power to enforce it? Who would back the commissions which must direct the indemnity levies which Germany is required to pay? Who would fix the military establishments of the Allied nations with the policy we have imposed on Germany? Who would govern the recently liberated domains of the dead despotism—lift them to their feet, and adjust the differences which are bound to arise? Who, we ask, if you cut out the League of Nations, the police power of the Treaty, would do all these essential things?

Nobody contends that the League of Nations is perfect. In many respects Mr. Wilson would have had it different, but he had strenuous partners in its compilation and there had to be concessions. In this world the man who expects to have his own way about everything will get many a bump from a low bridge. The League with Nations was the best we could get. It is a well known fact that our world-famous Federal Constitution was anathematized, while in formation, as a "league with hell."

Nine-tenths of the people of this nation want the treaty ratified, and the Senators who are "polyfoxing" about it are misrepresenting their constituents.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS.

SANDRA IS REBUKED AND DISAPPOINTED.

CHAPTER XIII.

"Why there's Everett—Mr. Graham!" I exclaimed to Mr. Halliday. "Let us go over and join him."

"Do you think that is wise? I imagine he is talking business and we would interrupt him."

"Oh, do you think so?" We had finished our luncheon. The waiter had just placed our coffee on the table.

"Yes, we have nearly finished they haven't commenced. I think it would be very unwise to disturb them."

I did not know what to do. It seemed terrible to have Everett, my husband, in the same room and not to speak to him; yet if Mr. Halliday were right and he was talking business with his companion, he might be cross with me for interrupting him. I would be guided by Mr. Halliday. He was a man and probably knew more about such things than I did. So I drank my coffee and then followed him from the restaurant, looking back longingly at Everett, what I could see of him—as I did so.

Mr. Halliday walked to the hotel with me, and thanked me so nicely for lunching with him, said I had made his day brighter and other complimentary things. I really felt before he left me that I had done a favor to one of Everett's friends, and could scarcely wait until he came back to the hotel to tell him.

He came in about 3 o'clock. I was lying on the couch reading. I jumped up immediately he came in and kissed him, not only affectionately, but effusively. Then, without waiting for him to say anything, I at once started to tell my story.

"You lunched at the Traymore with Halliday?" he interrupted.
"Yes, I was looking in a store window and he saw me and asked me to take pity on him and lunch with him. As I had to lunch alone, I went with him. He was lovely to me and said I had made the time pass so quickly and lots of nice things. If all of your friends are as nice as he is, I shall like them I am sure. Then you came in and I awfully wanted to go over and sit with you and your friend but we had nearly finished when you came in and Mr. Halliday said we might disturb you." I stopped for breath.

Everett had not attempted to interrupt me. Now he said:
"I should prefer that you would not lunch with men without my consent. I am glad that Halliday had sense enough to keep you from rushing over and annoying me. But such escapades are unbecoming in a married woman."

"Escapades—oh Everett! I really didn't have nearly so good a time as I would have had with you. At first I could scarcely speak to him I was so embarrassed because you weren't along. I didn't want to lunch with him one single bit."

"No one compelled you, did they?" Everett's tone was sarcastic.
"No—but—" his tonic had confused me, "wasn't it all right—he is your friend? You seemed to be friendly with him."

"What's that got to do with it? Are you planning to eat in public with men just because I happen to know them? Again his tone was disagreeable."

"Oh, you know I didn't plan it, Everett! I told you I met him when I was looking in a window. You know—I wouldn't have done it for worlds if I had thought it would make you jealous." I had felt a little thrill at the thought that he cared enough to be suspicious, even at the same time that I was frightened that I had displeased him.

"Jealous! What makes you think I am jealous. I trust you will dismiss that idea at once. You are my wife, and I expect you to conduct yourself in a proper manner. But as for being jealous—you need not flatter yourself. Only next time get my permission."

Someway I felt awfully disappointed. I wanted him to be so in love with me that he would care about every bit of attention I received. I did not know then how terribly unhappy jealousy could make a person; or how it could ruin one's life. But it seemed that if he were jealous it was a sure sign of love.

That faith and trust are more positive signs of affection I had to learn. Tomorrow—Everett Takes His Bride Home.

Constipation Results When Hot Weather Stops Exercise

WHEN the system has become accustomed to a certain daily routine of exercise and food, health is quick to suffer if that routine is interfered with. The bowels are first to notice the change.

Different water is enough to constipate. Changes of food when traveling, much sitting by those accustomed to long walks will do it. It is especially true that when elderly people change their routine they quickly become constipated. Yet elderly people should be particularly careful to keep their bowels open, especially during the hot months.

A better remedy for the purpose cannot be found on a druggist's shelf than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin which trains the stomach muscles to do their work naturally so that medicines can be dispensed with. Only a small dose is needed, and unlike harsh physics and cathartics, it acts gently and without griping.

A bottle of Syrup Pepsin can be bought at any drug store for 50c and $1, the latter the family size, or a free trial bottle will be sent on receipt of your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

PENNSY SHOPS MAY BE MOVED

There is a report that the Pennsylvania Railroad shops will be moved from Columbus to Covington, Miami county, owing to the central location of the village between Columbus, Chicago and St. Louis. It is stated that the company has had the plans to remove the shops under consideration for several years, but no decision was reached until recently when extensive improvements were made in the yards at Bradford, just west of Covington. Should the shops be moved to Covington, it will mean a great boom to that town, as several hundred families will be brought to the place. Covington is about six miles west of Piqua.

Worth Keeping in Mind.

By all means adopt the two old-time slogans, "Have a time for everything and a place for everything." If hung where they can be seen without eye strain these twin suggestions will do a world of good and will be remembered long after gay posters, which litter every place, have been torn down and consigned to the scrap heap.

THEATERS

BIJOU.

There is a particularly complicated plot back of the latest Vivian Martin picture "An Innocent Adventure" which Artercraft presentation appears at the Bijou theater Wednesday.

Miss Martin is a demure Miss who by her mere innocence becomes entangled in crooked deals. She is particularly clever in the part which is well adapted to her and her support is excellent, including Loyd Hughes, Edythe Chapman, Gertrude Norman, James Wolff, Tom D. Bates, Hal Clements, James Farley and Spottiswoode Aitken.

ORPHIUM.

A really clever cast has been selected by Triangle to depict "The Little Reddy" which appears at the Orphium theater Wednesday.

Hazel Daly has the title role, which offers her splendid opportunities and Harry Hilliard, who won his screen fame as Romeo to Theda Bara's Juliet, plays opposite her. Sidney Ainsworth is also in the cast. The story is a bright, breezy comedy of the better sort, which is intensely interesting.

HUGE GERMAN PIPE ON DISPLAY IN XENIA

A huge German hand-carved meerscham pipe is on display in the window of the C. A. Weaver clothing store.

The pipe is the property of Clyde Kussmaul, who lately returned from France, and was presented to him by an old Frenchman, with whom he had become friendly while in that country.

The pipe is over 250 years of age, and was handed down in the French family since then, the family having the pipe in their possession before being driven from their homes at the time of the Franco-Prussian war. The meerscham and the ivory embellishments are all hand carved and the sterling silver lid over the bowl is also hand wrought.

He will keep it as a souvenir of how the Adams Express Co. got ahead of a lawyer.

TAKE PEPSINCO

Don't burn good fuel in a poor stove

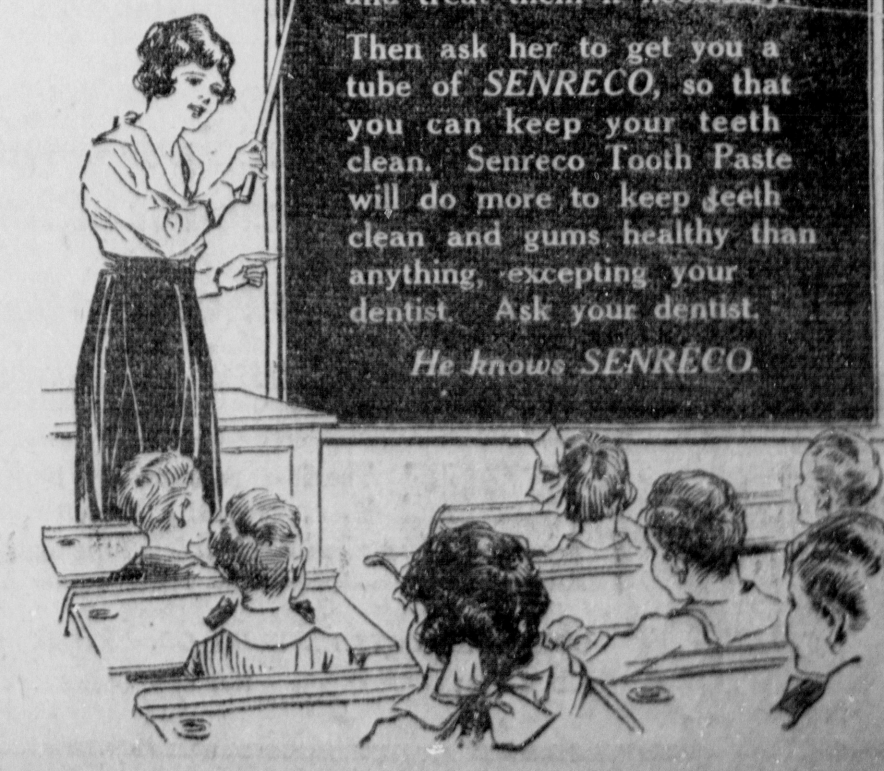

It's a useless waste of good fuel and a needless extravagance to try to burn it in a poor stove. It is absolutely wrong to expect good food to supply energy, vitality, health and happiness if your stomach won't absorb and assimilate it. If you cannot eat with enjoyment, if your food does you no good, if food distresses rather than benefits, then you have indigestion or dyspepsia. The best remedy to use is PEPSINCO.

Ask your druggist—he sells and recommends Pepsinco.

COURT NEWS

Suit to secure judgment for $607 commission on the sale of a 207 acre farm has been brought by T. C. Long and L. T. Marshall against J. W. and Mary O. Benigar. The plaintiff set forth that they were employed by the defendants to obtain a buyer for the farm, and that they furnished the defendants with the names of Percy Smith and Steve Phillips as possible purchasers of the property. The farm was sold to Percy Smith, for $33,500, the petition recites, and it is alleged that the defendants violated the contract by refusing to pay to the plaintiffs the commission of 2 per cent.

Alleging that his wife neglected her household duties and absented herself from home for long periods, Coe Cassell has brought suit for divorce from Nellie Cassell. They were married August 4, 1914.

REFUSE KILLS HUNDREDS OF FISH IN RIVER

Their gills clogged with refuse said to be from the plant of the Hager Board and Paper Company at Cedarville, and helpless through inability to breathe, hundreds of fish in the Little Miami River and Massie's Creek fell victim yesterday and today to men and boys who lined the banks, clubbed and captured the struggling creatures.

Fine bass, carp, shad and cat fish were captured by the tubful. Left alone, the fish nearly always die, causing a more serious problem, and local authorities are taking no action to stop the wholesale taking of the creatures.

Deputy State Game Warden Karl E. Keller of West Carrollton, was notified of the situation Tuesday morning by an official of the Greene County Fish and Game Commission, and he is expected here today to make investigation.

Sidney Smith, son of Superintendent A. Z. Smith of the Hager Board and Paper Company, said Tuesday that the company has received no report of the reservoir in which the refuse pulp from the plant is kept, overflowing, or of the refuse escaping in any other manner, into Massie's Creek. Ben Boone of Clifton, is employed as watchman at the reservoir. Mr. Smith says, and there is no doubt that he would have reported to his employers if the refuse was escaping.

Mr. Smith says that he believes the trouble in Massie's creek and the river is caused by the crude oil placed on the streets in Cedarville, and washed down through the sewers into the creek by the heavy rains. The condition in the streams last summer, he says, arose shortly after the Cedarville streets were oiled, and recently oil was again placed on the thoroughfares in the village. Water pouring through the sewers after the rains a few days ago, he said, was dark brown. At Clifton, above the plant, he says, fish have been affected in the same manner.

Last year the paper company was fined $150 and costs by Magistrate J. E. Jones, accepting responsibility for condition of the water which resulted in the deaths of the fish.

Mr. Little, president of the paper company, and other officials of the company, said at the time that they did not believe the refuse from their reservoir had caused the trouble, but that if it had been the cause, the valves must have been opened by malicious or mischievous persons. Mr. Little promised then that a watchman would be placed at the reservoir, and he, the same day became a member of the Greene County Fish and Game Commission.

Whatever the foreign matter in the creek and Little Miami river, it was carried rapidly down stream by the high water due to the recent rains, and concentrated near the dam at Trebeins, where hundreds of fish, struggling in the water have been taken with ease by the crowds.

No action had been taken this morning to stop bathing in the river at Kil Kare Park, but Manager Ruhlman said that such action would be taken if the water were found to be polluted. An investigation of the condition was to be made Tuesday.

Members of the Greene County Fish and Game Commission, who are responsible for having the streams stocked with fish, are greatly annoyed over the condition.

Massie's Creek is the finest bass stream in the county. Fed by springs, its cold waters furnish a fine home for this beautiful and game fish, and the true sportsman feels deeply because of its wholesale slaughter.

HAPPY REUNION AND PICNIC HELD

A very happy reunion and picnic was held by members of the Rhenish and Powell families last Sunday in a grove on the Gurneyville pike near New Burlington. Seventy-five people attended, and at dinner which was laden with long table, which was laden with every picnic delicacy imaginable. Among those attending from this vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Woods and family, Frank Powell and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rhenish and family.

POOR AUTO BRAKES CAUSE OF ACCIDENTS

Are your automobile brakes in good condition?

This is the question that must be answered every day by motorists held responsible for many street accidents. Poor brake lining and other brake defects result in inability to stop your car when running at an ordinary rate or speed.

Crowded traffic conditions, popular street crossings, school districts, playing children, increase danger and risk the man is running who knows that his brakes are not in good condition.

A chart showing the number of feet it should take a machine to come to a thorough stop when running at different rates of speed, has been hung up in police headquarters.

The chart is true to police traffic regulations.

According to the charted figures a machine running 10 miles an hour should stop in 9.2 feet; 15 miles an hour in 20.8 feet; 20 miles an hour, 37 feet; 25 miles, 58 feet; 30 miles, 83.3 feet; 35 miles, 113 feet; 40 miles, 148 feet; 50 miles, 231 feet.

Statisticians have figured that 250,000 cars have faulty brakes being a constant menace to both motorist and pedestrian. It is also shown that one car in every ten has an accident each year.

This year it may be you! Are your brakes prepared for the strain of a sudden stop? A life may depend on them.

GRANGE NEWS

The members of the Greene County Pomona Grange, are expecting their 8th annual Farmer's picnic to be the most successful one ever held. This big picnic will be held at Kil Kare park Thursday, July 24. There will be plenty of good speaking and lots of music. The two Grange speakers will be L. J. Taber, master of the Ohio State Grange and John C. Ketcham, master of the Michigan State Grange. These two men are well known to the farmers and Grangers of Greene county as the rural leaders of their respective states and are deep thinkers and splendid speakers. Mr. Taber has spoken in Greene county a number of times and Mr. Ketcham spoke at the picnic two years ago. Mr. Taber is a member of the legislative committee of the National Grange and Mr. Ketcham as lecturer of the National Grange, come in contact with rural leaders all over the country and thus are able to discuss agricultural questions from a national as well as a state and local standpoint.

It is hoped a large number of farmers will attend the morning meet-

FILM DOM MIRTH KING

GIVES WAY TO SORROW

Los Angeles, Cal., July 15.—Charlie Chaplin, king of mirth, made no one laugh Sunday. Head bowed in grief, the man whose name brings a smile the world over, rode beside a little white casket to the cemetery here and saw his first born laid to eternal rest after a brief 72 hours of life.

Then, alone, the man of laughter went out to his beautiful Hollywood home and in the door of the Mother Goose Nursery turned a little back key. In that room Charlie Chaplin locked the toys of his Little Boy Blue never kissed good night. And of the days when he would be relieving on the floor with a chubby lad bubbling with laughter.

For weeks Chaplin had thought of little else but the babe that was soon to be his. From the moment it arrived he stayed at its side at the hospital, first with all the proud joy of every father over his first born and then hoping against hope that the doctors were wrong—that the boy could live.

And when the wee heir to the throne in fildom comedy breathed its last breath, the joy of life, for a time at least was gone from Charlie Chaplin.

He said his health is poor, and if it continues to fail that he does not believe he can survive the term of his sentence.

In his answer he denies completely his wife's charges of cruelty. He admits that an "altercation" did take place between them, and that as a result the plaintiff, assisted by her daughter, cruelly assaulted him, crowding him into a corner and jabbing him with a hat pin. In the melee he avers his elbow struck his wife in the face.
